KINGDOM OF SCOTLAND

SOVEREIGN PROCLAMATION AND DIPLOMATIC NOTE

By Decree of His Majesty
BRUCE II R

KINGDOM OF SCOTLAND

THE ROYAL HOUSE OF STUART

His Majesty
BRUCE II R
KING OF SCOTLAND

REF : SCO/ECC-NOT/2026/003
YEAR : 2026
NATURE : Diplomatic and Ecclesiastical Notice to the Archbishop of St. Andrews and Edinburg
SUBJECT : THE NULLITY OF THE ACT OF SETTLEMENT 1701 CONCERNING RELIGIOUS DISCRIMINATION AND HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, THE REDRESS OF HISTORIC INJUSTICES, AND PETITION FOR RESTITUTION WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE HISTORICAL ARBITRATION AND AUTHORITY OF THE HOLY SEE (SANCTA SEDES)
TO : THE ARCHBISHOP OF ST. ANDREWS AND EDINBURGH

YOUR GRACE,

We, Bruce II, King of Scots, as the legitimate and surviving heir of the Royal House of Stuart and the absolute holder of the crown and throne of the Kingdom of Scotland, hereby formally tender this official instrument unto your person in virtue of all high sovereign prerogatives, royal rights, and de jure capacities appertaining unto Our Station.

This notification is formally served upon your person upon the foundation of historical, moral, and spiritual reality wherein the institutional injustices and religious discrimination historically perpetrated against the Catholic faith and conscience have been by Us, Bruce II, King of Scots, being the legitimate and surviving heir of the Royal House of Stuart, the absolute holder of the crown and throne of the Kingdom of Scotland, directly addressed regarding the fundamental rights and heritage of Scotland.

The Act of Settlement 1701, dictated by the London Parliament, unjustly and oppressively deprived the Royal House of Stuart of its rights solely on account of adherence to the Catholic faith or marriage with Catholics. This legislative enactment constituted a grave violation of universal human rights, freedom of belief, and the prohibition of discrimination, remaining entirely Void ab initio (null and void from the beginning) when measured against the superior peremptory norms (Jus Cogens) of international and universal law.

THE ROYAL HOUSE OF STUART

DEMANDS AND FORMAL NOTICE

In consequence of the foregoing, it is formally required that the Scottish Executive adopt an honorable and historically sound posture:

1. That an official assessment be promulgated declaring that municipal and administrative measures within the territory of Scotland which derive their purported authority from the dissolved Treaty of Union 1707 or from Westminster's ultra vires internal market regulations no longer possess any lawful validity or binding force over the Scottish people.
2. That the administrative posture of the Scottish Executive regarding the de jure Government of Scotland, the legitimate sovereign rights of the Royal House of Stuart, and the historic status of the Kingdom of Scotland be formally communicated unto Our person within ninety (90) days from the date of this instrument.
3. It is hereby formally notified that in default of such response, any subsequent proceedings instituted before international judicial tribunals or the United Nations shall proceed upon the legal basis that the current Scottish administration has incurred default and tacit acquiescence through its failure to address these material breaches.

This proclamation is a permanent verdict of history and law.
